

Professional Examination

Intensive Revision Workshop
Trainers' Profile

Contents

Page

Mr Kenny Lim Yeow Hua Advanced Taxation	2
Mr Clive Choo Corporate & Business Strategy	3
Ms Sim Bock Eng Company Law & Corporate Governance	4
Dr Foo See Liang Audit & Assurance	5
Mr Patrick Yeo Hian Chong Financial Reporting & Disclosure	6

Trainer's Profile

Module: Advanced Taxation (ATX)

Trainer: Mr Kenny Lim Yeow Hua

Kenny holds a Bachelor Degree in Accountancy and a MBA from the National University of Singapore.

He has more than 20 years of experience in the tax, financial services and investment banking industries. He specializes in corporate/individual income tax and goods & services tax consulting and advisory. He has a wealth of experience in regional and cross border transactions that encompass mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructuring, tax optimization and value protection, tax efficient financing, tax planning and regional taxation. He has also many years of experience in dealing with the tax authorities in the Asia Pacific region. Kenny is the founder and Managing Director of Asia Pacific Business Consultants Pte Ltd, a premier tax and management consultancy firm. He is also an Independent Director of a number of companies listed on the Singapore Stock Exchange (SGX).

Kenny is a frequent speaker at tax seminars in Singapore, China and India. He has also lectured at the Tax Management Course conducted by Nanyang Technological University.

Kenny is a Fellow of the ICPAS and a Full Member of the Singapore Institute of Directors.

Module: Corporate & Business Strategy (CBS)

Trainer: Mr Clive Choo

Clive has more than 20 years of working experience in Business Development, Sales & Marketing, and Corporate Training. He previously held senior managerial positions for large Japanese and European MNCs, with extensive experiences in the Asian Pacific business environment. Clive has successfully managed large businesses in this region, working closely with direct sales force as well as distribution channels.

His areas of expertise include business strategies, managing direct sales force, distribution channels and establishing dealers' network. Clive has been consulted by both for-profit and non-profit organizations in the areas of business planning and strategies. Besides providing consultancy work, Clive conducts Corporate Training for various listed companies. He has delivered seminars and courses for many working professionals and established organizations.

Clive is a Lecturer with Nanyang Business School (NBS), Nanyang Technological University (NTU) in the Strategy, Management and Organization Division where he teaches Strategic Management in the final-year of the Business and Accounting degree programme. Also, he is pursuing PhD in Management.

Other than his passion in academic and business consulting work, Clive serves in various capacities in Sports and societal work. He is currently serving as a Council Member for NTU Sports Council. He is active in promoting community sports as a Grassroot leader. Clive is also a workshop facilitator volunteer in REACH Family Services Centre, an organization under the Ministry of Community Development, Youth and Sports.

Module: Company Law & Corporate Governance (LCG)

Trainer: Ms Sim Bock Eng

Ms Sim Bock Eng holds a Master of Business Administration / Master of Law (MBA/LLM), and a LLB Honours from the National University of Singapore (NUS).

She is a Partner of WongPartnership. With admission as an Advocate & Solicitor of Supreme Court of Singapore and to the roll of solicitors of England and Wales, Ms Sim has 17 years of experience providing legal services in various fields ranging from Banking and Finance, Property and Real Estate, Trusts and Estates, Labour Law to Intellectual Property.

Her experience includes representation of corporate entities, shareholders and investors on disputes pertaining to the management and control of companies, rights, duties and obligations of directors and shareholders as well as management of insolvencies, including voluntary arrangements, re-structuring, judicial management and liquidation in Singapore, Hong Kong and Australia. Ms Sim has also represented local and international banks, financial institutions and private investors in a wide variety of on-shore and off-shore matters including credit facility recovery (consumer and corporate), letters of credit, trust receipts, factoring and hire purchase as well as enforcement of security interests in Singapore, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Thailand, Australia and India.

Ms Sim is an Adjunct Tutor for Advocacy Course of Law Faculty, NUS as well as a tutor for Probate and Advocacy courses of the Board of Legal Education.

She has been appointed as a Mediator for the Small Claims Tribunal of Singapore and as a Commissioner for Oaths. She is also a member of The Singapore Academy of Law and The Law Society of Singapore. She has presented speeches and seminars for various corporations such as “Fundamentals & Current Issues of Employment Law in Singapore” for KeyMedia (2007), “Enbloc Sales” for BEMA (2007), “Payment Terms and Financial Clauses in Commercial Agreements” for WatchTower Asia (2007) and “The IP rights in your Company’s Software” for Singapore Corporate Counsel Association (2007) and “IP Due Diligence” to Singapore Stock Exchange (2003).

Module: Audit & Assurance (AUD)

Trainer: Dr Foo See Liang

Dr Foo See Liang was a National University of Singapore Overseas Graduates Scholar. He has a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of New South Wales (Australia) and a doctorate (Accountancy) degree from the University of Hull (UK). He was awarded the Touche Ross & Co. National Students' Awards for the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales' Professional Examinations in 1981, 1982 and 1983. In 1993, he attended the Senior Executives Programme at the Sloan School of Management, MIT (USA).

Dr Foo was an audit manager and management consultant when he was in public accounting practice. He is currently doing research on risk management and governance issues. He is a Technical Advisor to a CPA firm and a Director and Chairman of the Audit Committee of a company listed on the main board of the Singapore Exchange.

He is a Practice Associate Professor at the School of Accountancy, Singapore Management University (SMU). He was formerly the Vice-Dean (Accountancy) and Sub-Dean of NBS. He has served as a Council Member of NTU and was also Assistant to the President, NTU.

He is presently a Member of the Auditing and Assurance Standards Committee of ICPAS A Chartered Accountant by training, he is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (UK) and the ICPAS.

Module: Financial Reporting & Disclosure (FRD)

Trainer: Mr Patrick Yeo Hian Chong

Mr Patrick Yeo holds a Bachelor Degree in Accountancy from Nanyang Technological University, Singapore (NTU), and also an Associate Chartered Account from Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (ICAEW), achieving the Annual National Order of Merit Fourth place, Northcott Prize, for the 2004 ICAEW's ACA exams.

After graduating from NTU in year 2002, he embarked his career with one of the Big Four Accountancy firms, PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC), and was selected for the PwC Singapore's UK CA program from year 2003 to 2006. He was also awarded with PwC subject prizes for Business Finance, Taxation and Financial Reporting in the ACA exams.

Currently, Patrick is a Manager with PwC specializing in the Investment Management Industry. Being an Engagement Manager, he holds portfolio with main clients like Schroder Investment Management (S) Ltd, First State Investments (Singapore), BNP Paribas Asset Management, UOB, Aberdeen Asset Management, State Street Bank & Trust, and Prudential Asset Management.

On top of his main work scopes, he is also part of the PwC Singapore Investment Management Real Estate Practice's (IMRE) Marketing committee and Quality committee, as well as ICAEW Singapore City Group working committee. He is the lead instructor for PwC Singapore IMRE's courses such as "Introduction to Investment Management" and "Advanced Investment Management".

In addition, he is proficient in several professional standards namely "International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), Singapore Financial Reporting Standards (SFRS), UK GAAP, US SAS 70 and Global Investment Performance Standards (GIPS).